Grand Knight's Message

Dear Brother Knights, Family Members, and Honored Clergy,

Thank you Brother Knights for all that you do for this council.

This being the month dedicated to the Most Holy Rosary, I wanted to reflect on this most powerful weapon given to us by our Blessed Mother and so readily available to us all. The Feast of the Most Holy Rosary is the first Sunday in October. This date is attributed to by early tradition to the defeat of the Albigensian heresy in 1213, or by others, to the defeat of the Turkish invading fleet in 1571. Which ever date one is inclined to acknowledge as the inception of this feast, it really does not matter. All we know is that through the Blessed Mother's intercession, we are protected and kept safe – as long as we continue this devotion by frequent fervent prayer.

On a personal level, the praying of the rosary and the many graces that have come forth from the Lord to our family, have been many, some small, others quite profound. Our Lady has led us to a closer communion with God (through various life changing experiences – a story for another time), helped us through many of life's difficult moments, and has most definitely tied our family closer together. However, I will be the first to tell you, that even though this devotion is quite simple to execute, keeping up a constant, daily devotion to this practice is a learned experience. Yes, saying many decades of the rosary is not easy. As with anything physical, spiritual fortitude takes practice and dedication. Many years ago, as we were being led to pray the rosary as a family, we started small. We made it an effort to simply say one decade. Just one. That's how we started. Today, at the start of any road trip, or time at home, praying one mystery, or more, is second nature. We don't even think about it; it's like saying grace before and after meals. It is part of the spiritual life at our home. I would encourage all my brother knights, if you are not already doing so, to make this a practice in your domestic church. Start small, and then move on to longer prayers at a later time. Encourage your family to participate in opportunities to pray the rosary as a community. Remember your first degree ceremony when you were given the rosary.

Thought for the Month
"Speak to My Heart"

*****
 Some of the most profound experiences of being led into the desert are times of transition after a major life change: in our health, relationships, finances, career, or living place. Something significant has shifted. We are unsettled. The most important thing I have found to remember is that I am not alone in this desert time. I don't believe God causes these changes in our lives, but I am convinced God leads us in them, calling us: "Come to me. Let me speak to your heart, Let me tell you how beloved you are."
