Grand Knight's Message

Dear Brother Knights and Honored Clergy,

There are many people dealing with the aftermath of storms, earthquakes, and wildfires and we should keep them in our prayers. Losing family members and friends is heartbreaking. Losing all you possessions is devastating. Recovering from major injuries is a painful road to travel. Somehow these people manage, but they desperately need help and our prayers. Recognizing this, Knights of Columbus Charities has set up a fund to help victims of the devastating floods in Louisiana.

Thought for the Month “Witnessing Change”

*****

I hope I am changed
after prayer time,
after receiving Christ in the Eucharist,
after reconciliation.

I hope that in my loving kindness,
in my openness, in my joy,
in my good deeds and words, even I might be a witness, however flawed, to the One I have met along the way.

Lord Jesus Christ, may the strength and encouragement I find in you shine through my deeds and words.

Amy Welborn

The Turban Project

A card is placed with each turban identifying the names of those who have made them and that they are blessed by a priest. Priests from St. Edward, St. Francis, Blessed Sacrament, St. Leonard, or Our Lady of Mount Carmel bless the turbans and then they are distributed to the oncology/radiation centers in Licking County. The turbans are free to the patients. We have also mailed turbans, per request, to patients in Florida, Tennessee, Pennsylvania, and Maine. We have made home visits and workplace visits for the convenience of patients.
