Grand Knight's Message

Dear Brother Knights and Honored Clergy,

It is an enlightening experience to stand outside an operating abortion facility and pray the Rosary with a small group of pro-life individuals. It is a challenge to see women coming and going, and wonder if your prayers are serving any purpose. It can also be challenge when people yell at you to "just go home." However, it is heart-warming when people driving by beep their horn in support, or when people walk up and say thank you.

You are simply praying for a softening of hearts of those who may hate you for praying.

An article in the recent National Catholic Register by Joseph Pierce entitled, Through the Eyes of an Ex-White Supremacist, provided amazing insight into the power of praying for those who hate you. However, it was from the perspective of hatred based on racial pride.

Here are some excerpts from the article.....

"If we will not teach goodness, truth and beauty, we cannot avoid breeding viciousness, falsehood and ugliness, and this will include the rise of pride in all its ugly manifestations, including pride in one's perceived racial identity."

"The problem is that relativism elevates feeling over reason. If it's all about me and my feelings and not about my place in an objective reality of which I am only a small part, I am "free" to pick and choose the "self" that I selfishly desire."

"Racism and other manifestations of pride need to be countered by an encounter with reason. There is, however, one other force that helped me overcome my pride – and that is the power of love. In my days of pride, I hated my enemies, and I expected my enemies to hate me. It was the old law of: an eye for an eye. You hurt me and I hate you. Hate breeding hatred.”

“In my book Race with the Devil: My Journey From Racial Hatred to Rational Love, I recall three separate occasions when I confronted an enemy with hatred and enmity, and received in return love and friendship.”

“Make no mistake about it, love is a powerful weapon against our enemies. Hatred hurts our enemies, but it doesn’t stop them from being enemies; on the contrary, it enflames their hatred and increases their enmity. Love, on the other hand, does not hurt our enemies; it only hurts their hatred.”

“This is the challenge we face in the wake of the horrors of Charlottesville. It is to love our enemies. We should not demonize the white supremacist or the abortionist, but we should love them into submission.”

May God Bless you and your family for all you do, and may God Bless America.

Vivat Jesus

“Super Subs for St Paul”

What better way to enjoy watching football than feasting on tasty Knights of Columbus submarine sandwiches! As you may have heard, our Council is selling sub sandwiches to raise funds to underwrite our commitment to the St Paul Parish Building Fund.

Volunteers are needed to help make and sell submarine sandwiches on Sat Nov 11 and Sun Nov 12. If you are available to make subs, please let Kevin O’Connor know (614-523-3892 or koconnor@gci2000.com).

Breakfast with Santa
December 2

Ho ho ho ! Can it be so ? It certainly is. It's time to start planning for the 2016 Breakfast with Santa event at St. Paul. This year's event will be held in Miller Hall on Saturday December 2. I will arrange a planning meeting, but it is better to submit requests for auction items early in the year. If you know anyone who is affiliated with a business and might be interested in supporting our efforts with donations let me know and I'll send you our solicitation note that has the council's tax id number and a summary of the event. I can be reached at anthonyjllloyd.al@gmail.com

Fraternally,
Tony Lloyd

Thought for the Month
“Words and Actions”

I mean well. I want to be good, to reform, to make things right. But anyone can make a promise based on a fleeting desire to help or to be admired or loved. Anyone can utter pretty and convincing words. But it’s our actions that prove our true characters and identities. As my grandmother was so fond of remind me, even the devil knew his Scriptures. But only Jesus did the work of the Father.

Jessica Mesman Griffith
Living Faith

Do your actions as son, brother, father, husband, friend, or neighbor speak louder than your words?

Thank you, Knights of Columbus!

Thank you for your gracious $250 contribution to my Eagle Scout project! With your help, the 10' x 12' storage shed was constructed as planned at Westerville South High School and is already in use by the marching band.

Without the considerable donations of the community this shed would not have become a reality. 8 days, nearly 250 hours of volunteer labor and $1987.76 of donations went into this, all from this great Westerville community. Thank you.
